Losing Sight

Lost Atlanta

Day in and day out Everybody's losing a battle to be proud.
Crawling around on the ground Who's to say that you cannot take the crown?It is weakness slowely pulling you in You were drowning in the life that you live.
So hung up on likes and screens you're disappearing but you can't see.
Forced on paths where we don't belong so blind on talents we all own.
Oh how did it end up this way, our ambitions fade away.Stand up and be brave only you can make a change.
Stand up and be brave we have one life, do what's right.We all deserve a chance for a better life
Don't be like everyone else,
Don't let your hopes slide.We live each day,
our time is burning away.
Don't lose your own sight,
open your eyes
We have a change to make a chance.We have the legs to carry.
All the doubts that loaded on,
Walk the path that makes you happy.
Not the one you are forced upon.We live each day,
our time is burning away.
Don't lose your own sight,
open your eyes
Don't hide away and let other claim their fame.
Do what is right,
put your conscience aside.
You're the one to break the chains.We all give in so easily and never do what's right Expand the limits
open your eyes.
Don't lose sight
no

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/