

If I Had Made You Up

The Young Romans

Thought I had lost everything
That I was on my own
But then I found you
Or did you find me
The way it feels like,
It feels like home
It feels like home
Yeah I'd stopped hoping when you burst on to the sea
If I had made you up
You couldn't have any been better
Every detail of tell to the letter
They say it's the way it's supposed to be
Oh really, really
It's like I saw your face before I even met you
Now there's nowhere that I never let you
Step out of the frame
I know it's strange
How quick we fell, but I'm still falling every day
And my entire view from here to kingdom come
You're right beside of me
Yeah I'd stopped hoping
when you burst on to the sea
If I had made you up
You couldn't have any been better
Every detail of tell to the letter
They say it's the way it's supposed to be
Oh really, really
It's like I saw your face before I even met you
Now there's nowhere that I never let you
Step out of the frame
"Step out of the frame" The Young Romans
I'd stopped hoping
when you burst on to the sea
If I had made you up
You couldn't have any been better
Every detail of tell to the letter
They say it's the way it's supposed to be
Oh really, really

It's like I saw your face before I even met you

Now there's nowhere that I never let you

Step out of the frame
