Only Me

Cindy Bernadette

I heard a sound I turned to see
The wind it must have been for at home there's only me
She's gone and far beyond the sea
Still I find her hand in mine although there's only me

And as I wander around the world anew
Beautiful girls pass me by but they're not you
And should I fail what would I be?
Ashamed no one to blame oh no there's only me

I'd have no one to blame oh no there's only me
