My Best Girl

Lucero

well i'm a sucker for some pretty eyes but they're going home with some other boy tonight hell, i guess i'll be fine 'cause there's one girl whose all mine she's seen it before, she'll see it again because those other girls going home with him and i'll go back to her and she don't mindshe's my best girl she's got six strings
she knows all about these heartbreak and things
and though her eyes might not shine she's always by my side hell, she's all mine
for all night
she's my best girl by far
she's all mine
and she'll never break my heartwell she don't care if i come home late or if i don't come home for seven long days she knows that i'm hers and she knows to wait she knows those other girls just won't last she knows i'll always come on back to her she's all that i've gotshe's my best girl
the only girl a boy can trust is his guitar
