

Step Together

Joe Goddard & Boris Dlugosch

It's time to think inside the box
It's time to remember just what matters and what does not Stand by your family and hope they'll stand by you
That's something social networks just won't do
I say it again Work together, keep on
Step together, keep on It's time to live within our means
I say it again
It's time to separate desires from real dreams
Stand by your brothers, hope they'll stand by you
I say it again
Hope you can tell the foes from the truth
I say it again It's time to live within our means
I say it again
It's time to separate desires from real dreams
Stand by your brothers, hope they'll stand by you
I say it again
Hope you can tell the foes from the truth
Work together, keep on
Step together, keep on
