

Slow Dancing

Joe Walsh

I catch your reflection though smoke-filled eyes.
Begin my inspection I watch you.
Your smooth syncopation,
You synthesize the beat and the vibration.
There's something about you, your sultry ways
That gives me a shiver.
Your style's so enticing, you wear it well
Completely inviting I watch you.

[Chorus]

If I smiled at you would you walk my way?
Would you have this dance with me?
Slow dancing, slow dancing, just you and me.

Those smooth operators prove their lives in anticipation.
Craft emulator of dark designs in fascination.

[Chorus]
