True, Part Iii

Concrete Blonde

and I will leave this life and I will know I've done the very best I canand I will leave behind strain and pain
and take the blame for who I amand I I tried
tried to find a way
to hang it all together
oh togetherand when I leave this life,
what will you say of me,
you who never knew my heart?for I will leave behind
the sound of a woman
who knew what was true
from the start.and I
I wanna slide
out of my old hide all clean and free and betteryeah I wanna ride off into a wild new morning, off into forever
forever.oh I
I
wanna ride
off into some wild new morning, off into forever.oh I
I wanna slide
out of my old hide all
clean and free and better
oh forever
