

What If I Leave

Rachael Yamagata

Why don't you call when you say you will, my dear?
Is it because I don't belong to you?
And why don't you come when you say you will, my dear?
Do you really think it would work out wrong? What if I leave? What if I leave?
What if I leave? What if I leave? Why don't you call? Don't you miss me at all?
Left a long, long time ago to where the weather was better for his kind
Why won't you play? The girl who loves your face
I may be a fool all along but I never understood these rules What if I leave? What if I leave?
What if I leave? What if I leave? So I grow up lonely for another with the windy city left behind to my lover
Will you ever know the way I cry?
You were gone that day so you may have missed my goodbye
Sometimes in my dreams I hear you say
If you really care you won't go away What if I leave? What if I leave?
What if I leave? What if I leave?
What if I leave? What if I leave?
What if I leave? What if I leave?
