Holly

Paul Geremia

Marilyn baby, wants to be a pop star
She's seventeen and very unhappy
Frankie baby, used to be a big fish
He's ethnic boy and ain't got no money
And Holly wouldn't be so precious
If the beach bum beauties
Weren't so delicious in Hollywood
Who cares anyway?
Who really cares anyway?
Who cares anyway?
Who really cares anyway?
Frankie baby, sees punks on the sidewalk
Freaks on the freeway
Someone blows a kid away
Have a nice day
Sweet, sweet Marilyn
A streetwise heroine
A tricks, a fix, a fix, a tricks, a fix, a fix

She'll do anything
And Holly wouldn't be so tragic
When everybody trips the light fantastic
In Hollywood
Who cares anyway?
Who really cares anyway?
Who cares anyway?
Who really cares anyway?
In the Hollywood bowl of serial killers
Who cares anyway?
Holly don't give a damn
Holly don't give a damn
Who cares anyway?
Who really cares anyway?
Who cares anyway?
Who really cares anyway?
In the Hollywood bowl of serial killers
