

Power Within

Better Than a Thousand

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You blame it on your youth, blame it on your luck
Blame it on your family, they didn't give a fuck
Blame it on your poverty or because you're rich
Blame it on the one you love and label her a bitch

POWER WITHIN

We've got the powerYou blame it on the weather, but I think it's bizarre
That you blame it on astrology and all of the starsPOWER WITHIN
We've got the powerBlame it on your country, blame it on your town
Blame it on your neighborhood, you want to burn it down
Blame it on your culture, blame it on your genes
Blame it on New York,L.A., and all that's in betweenPOWER WITHIN
We've got the powerSick of all these excuses, they're not good enough for me
Now's the time to rise and take responsibilityPOWER WITHIN
We've got the powerLife will force a change-will we improve?
Choices dictate if we win or lose
Leave the past behind, now we'll begin
We must find the power, the power within
