Emeralds and Embers

Performed By: Colin Elmore & The Franz Family

Emeralds and embers in her gentle eyes
Kindled the coals that rested in mine
A spark in my lungs yeah a flicker of light
Melted my heart to that of a child

Her face, it beams with a sacred light
With a taste of dreams and eternities might
In the ruin of loss in the darkest of night
Through shivering teeth I will sing to the sky
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

And Iâ€™ll
Iâ€™ll..
Iâ€™ll..
I want her..
And I want her, Fire

Sheâ€™s covered in color Van Gogh couldnâ€™t paint
Lavender lover of sinners and saints
Through honey wet lips she will whisper my name
Till the sun and the moon declare she must be tamed
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

And Iâ€™ll
Iâ€™ll..
Iâ€™ll..
I want her..
And I want her, Fire

Her hair hangs low and it falls in waves
The rise of the tide and the swell begins
To lull me to sleep on the shore which I wait
For the warmth and the burn of that holy flame
Oh oh oh oh

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh, oh
