

Halfsharkalligatorhalfman

Dr. Octagon

I would have been completely dead had it not been for the Shark Man Shark Man? Judging from his appearance, that's the most Appropriate name I could come up with for him
I hate this kid, this uh, thing you're talking about
It had the body of a shark and the arms and face of a man?

That's the chap, holy jumping jack fishYes, you have met the dangerous, 208 year old uncle of Dr. Octagon
I myself Mr. Gerbik, half-shark, half-man, skin like alligator

Carrying a dead walrus, check itWith my white eyes, gray hair, face is sky blue yellow
Sideburns react, my skin is colored lilac
My skin turn orange and green in the limousine

People think I'm mixed with shark, drinking gasolineUnderwater I breathe and let loose on my sleeve
Walking down Hollywood Boulevard with a credit card

Three alligators behind me, feel my skin is hard

Transvestites, and people watch space parasitesI left his head in the store, legs in the street
Body in Wilcox, with blood dripping off my feet
L.A.P.D. through gray clouds couldn't see me

I first turned rainbow, closed my eyes, watch my brain glow
People got scared and ranned away they think I'm weird

I was born this way, halfsharkalligator, is he weird??Halfsharkalligatorhalfman, half man, half shark
Halfsharkalligatorhalfman, half man, half sharkMy vomit fluctuates, covers your skull like protoplasm
Lightning bugs turn pink, on my tongue catches spasms

Green elephants, I battle streets with a zebra

My mechanism is more than Dionne's psychic voodooAfrican beads, snake skins, cold script through you my medical passes

You can't see, with greedy glasses

Carbon dioxide, pour right through em with gases

My description dinosaurI was made half shark, half man, my skin is like razor blades
Seven, oh, seven, Mr. Gerbik

Verbally no one change my thoughts, animals fly from Philly

My appetites more big it's time for wildabeasts

Adjust my skulls, seven eyes switch hydraulic scribbles

And shrimps, mack gorillas like a pimp, half shark, alligator manHalfsharkalligatorhalfman, half man, half shark
Halfsharkalligatorhalfman, half man, half shark
Halfsharkalligatorhalfman, half man, half shark

Halfsharkalligatorhalfman, half man, half sharkIn my real world, orangutans dance for Thanksgiving
With skeleton bones and skunk tails, is my mission
Holding backward raps to all my power packs

Baboons clap and girl horses wanna hit the sackWe're too bold for ocean water, monkeys sniffin' ice
Contact Jupiter pools Martians bring my rice

I'm out flyin' with purple capes in the twilight

Ooh, ooh, ooh, tonight's the night

My oxygen region's, New York to California, half shark alligator, half man
It takes a supreme feat of strength to swim through

The water plows while dragging two hundred

And fifty pounds on your back the crocodile's teeth

Are designed to seize and hold, not to cut through skin
During all the hours the somber lay in the water

But are unable to penetrate the deer's tough hide

The crocodiles make a few token objections but in the end

Give up the struggle
