Pop Rock And Roll

I See Stars

I gave you time because I thought you had to think it out
Now your head is all filled up with doubt
Surely there would be assurance by now
I am comfortable with the unpredictable
In this place, I sense contagious
And I see a face
I can't contain this
I can't contain this, noYeah I'm just a kid
But I can be tall
I can be anything at all
I can be yours
You can be mine
Just for tonight I swear that it will feel rightI look at her picture (I look at her picture)
Remembering other times in life
And I know that no one is listening
But, I have something I want to say
Tonight I met the one that hoped for me
Got closer, she's over
And tonight I met the one that hoped for meI close my eyes
I see her in my mind now
Looking through the ups and downs
Searching for a turn around
Surely there would be assurance by nowYeah I'm just a kid
But I can be tall
I can be anything at all
I can be yours
You can be mine
Just for tonight I swear that it will feel rightI look at her picture (I look at her picture)
Remembering other times in life
And I know that no one is listening
But, (I know that no one's listening)Tonight I met the one that hoped for me
Got closer, she's over
Tonight I met the one that hoped for me*We gaze upon the glowing sky
Wishing this last kiss wasn't our last goodbye
I pushed myself to follow the truth
That my last night could not be with you*And I'll sing to you
'Til it's over
Now it's over
And I'll to you

'Til it's over
Now it's over
'But I'll sing for you'
Forever
And ever!{Fade out}
