I See Stars

I gave you time because I thought you had to think it out
Now your head is all filled up with doubt
Surely there would be assurance by now
I am comfortable with the unpredictable
In this place, I sense contagious
And I see a face
I can't contain this
I can't contain this, no Yeah I'm just a kid
But I can be tall
I can be anything at all
I can be yours
You can be mine
Just for tonight I swear that it will feel right I look at her picture (I look at her picture)
Remembering other times in life
And I know that no one is listening
But, I have something I want to say
Tonight I met the one that hoped for me
Got closer, she's over
And tonight I met the one that hoped for me I close my eyes
I see her in my mind now
Looking through the ups and downs
Searching for a turn around
Surely there would be assurance by now Yeah I'm just a kid
But I can be tall
I can be anything at all
I can be yours
You can be mine
Just for tonight I swear that it will feel right I look at her picture (I look at her picture)
Remembering other times in life
And I know that no one is listening
But, (I know that no one's listening) Tonight I met the one that hoped for me
Got closer, she's over
Tonight I met the one that hoped for me *We gaze upon the glowing sky
Wishing this last kiss wasn't our last goodbye
I pushed myself to follow the truth
That my last night could not be with you *And I'll sing to you
'Til it's over
Now it's over
And I'll to you

'Til it's over
Now it's over
'*But I'll sing for you*'
Forever
And ever! {Fade out}
