

World of Hate

Jungle Rot

slowly dying
screaming pain
with your life you must pay
    bound by nails
    ropes of thorn
    blood for power
the weakened mounrtwisted thoughts of pain travel through my brainendless torture screams of gore
        flames to blacken
        forever more
        thoughts of death
            and doom
            live your life
    in gloomtwisted thoughts of pain travel through my brainbetter to rule in HELL then to serve in
        heaven
        pity the weak
        deeper they fell
        broken courage
        trapped by fear
        fading to black
the end is nearvisions fading
    my world grows thin
        skin grows colder
        as my body caves in
        living in DARKNESS
    the sea of flames
        my soul carried
            underground
        your life I claim
