

Dead To Me

Melanie Martinez

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

My condolences
I shed a tear with your family
I'll open a bottle up
Pour a little bit out in your memory
I'll be at your wake dressed in all black
I'll call out your name but you won't call back
I'll hand a flower to your mother when I say goodbye
'Cause baby you're dead to me I need to kill you
That's the only way to get you out my head
Oh I need to kill you
To silence all the sweet little things you said
I really want to kill you
Wipe you off the face of my earth
Bury your bracelet
Bury your bracelet
Six feet under the dirt Rainy days and black umbrellas
Who's gonna save you now
Can you cheat from underground My condolences
I'll shed tear with your family
I'll open a bottle up
Pour a little bit out in your memory
I'll be at your wake dressed in all black
I'll call out your name but you won't call back
I'll hand a flower to your mother when I say goodbye
'Cause baby you're dead to me
I'll mourn when you go
'Cause baby you're dead to me
I'll mourn you when you go I need to say I'm sorry
That's the only thing you say when you lose someone
I used to say I'm sorry
For all of the stupid shit you've done
So now I'm really sorry

Sorry for being the apologetic one
But if I told you again, if I told you again
You would think I was crazyMy condolences
I'll shed a tear with your family
I'll open a bottle up
Pour a little bit out in your memory
I'll be at the wake dressed in all black
I'll call out your name but you won't call back
I'll hand a flower to your mother when I say goodbye
'Cause baby you're dead to meI'll mourn you when you go
Baby you're dead to me
I'll mourn you when you go
'Cause baby you dead to me
