Strong Enough

Clem Snide

There is nothing to be scared of
Love it's only one gray hair
There is love, there is love
Strong enough to doubtHere's a napkin, dry your eyes
Don't cut onions in your mind
'Cause you have love, you have love
Strong enough to doubtAnd you're the flower of my heart
That my thoughts can't tear apart
And we have love and we have love
Strong enough to doubt
