Rise Against

P.O.D.

Whats the point in knowing?
Whats the use in going on if all you do is nothing?
What is it youre showing
To all the people looking on leaving us with nothing?Just a voice with no sound
Whats holding you down?Rise against, rise up for what is right
Stand alone, stand alone, are you willing to try?
Rise against and stand up for what is right
One man alone, man alone, are you willing to die?Whats the point in living? Whats the use in moving on
If you keep pretending like theres nothing wrong?
What is it youre giving to all of us who wait and hope
For someone we can follow?If you lead Ill go
But only you knowRise against, rise up for what is right
Stand alone, stand alone, are you willing to try?
Rise against and stand up for what is right
One man alone, man alone, are you willing to die?Whats the point in knowing if all you do is nothing?
Whats the point in living if you keep pretending?If you lead Ill go
But only you knowRise against, rise up for what is right
Stand alone, stand alone, are you willing to try?
Rise against and stand up for what is right
One man alone, man alone, are you willing to die?
