

Silence Is Golden

Garbage

If I am silent then I am not real
But if I speak up then no one will hear
If I wear a mask there's somewhere to hide Silence is Golden
I have been broken
Safe in my own skin
So nobody wins If I raise my voice will someone get hurt
And if I can't feel then I won't get touched
If no truths are spoken then no lies can hide Silence is Golden
Nobody gets in
Safe in my own skin
So nobody wins Did you hear me speak
Do you understand
Did you hear my voice
Will you hold my hand
Do you understand me Won't someone listen
Nobody gets in
My body's a temple
But nothing is simple
Silence is golden
I have been broken
Something was stolen
Safe in my own skin
