Whispers

Symphony X

When all the angels cry sadness reigns upon us all White doves fade to blackWith the absence of the heart we could never smile
We can feel the bitter tearsWhispers from you - calling out from above
Visions I can't see, like the wind and your love
Whispers to you - carry on through the night Wounds I can't heal, graceful figure in whiteAnd when you watch over me please guide me all the way You're my judge and my juryAs I lay my head to rest your absence will surround me and I'll die another deathWhispers from you - calling out from above Visions I can't see, like the wind and your love
Whispers to you - carry on through the night
Wounds I can't heal, graceful figure in white[Solo]Whispers from you - calling out from above
Visions I can't see, like the wind and your love
Whispers to you - carry on through the night
Wounds I can't heal, graceful figure in white
