Mr. So Damn Fine

Maysa

Mr. So Damn Fine
Did you really think you blew my mind?
Sorry, but you didn't even come close
Pretty boys like you with your funky attitudes
Are the ones, that I hate the mostTrying to jump, in my game, like you knew how to play
Walking around always posing
Thinking, oh, should I say no
Where somebody's watching you
Flexing in a mirror like the world revolves around youMr. So Damn Fine
You thought you blew my mind
Sorry, but you didn't even come close
Mr. Got No Time, why you wasting mine
Baby, this is how the story goesMr. So Damn Fine
Thought you blew my mind
Don't want to put your business out on front street
From what I found, you tried to put it down
You turned out to be a trick instead of a treatStellar, faith in your low self esteem
You tried to come in my world and Mess up my dreams and
I ain't gonna let, I ain't gonna let you
'Cause baby, it ain't that deepMr. So Damn Fine
Did you really think you blew my mind?
Sorry, but you didn't even come close
Pretty boys like you with your funky attitudes
Are the ones, that I hate the mostThe answer to my dream is Who you think you are? But
I wanted a real man
When, I wished upon that starYeah, looking for a real man, all right
Thought you blew my mind, baby
Got no time
Why you wasting mine? YeahMr. So Damn Fine
Did you really think you blew my mind?
Sorry, but you didn't even come close
Pretty boys like you with your funky attitudes
Are the ones, that I hate the mostBye, bye, bye, bye, bye
