Feast On Dismembered Carnage

Carcass

Bodies dismembered, corpses desecrated
Carcasses liquidized and minced with hatred
Brains are splattered, strewn limbs and heads
Blood has been spurted as the arteries were shreddedEyes have been impaled, flayed skin in strips
Intestines and guts from the body have been ripped
Stench of sweet blood, bones have been crunched
Festering gore is eaten for lunchParasitic carnivorous carrion, your gastrointestinal tract, your prey's cremator
Bloody neo-cannibalistic, bloodfeed masticator
Rigor sanguined fleshfeast, gourging on festered entrails and warm meat
Devouring cold offal, necro-sentient mortis feedMutilated organs, the meat-cleaver is raised
Falls to mash the head and rip up the face
Throats slit with vengeance, flesh stripped to the bone
Your death is terrible, painful and slowDrooling palate
Terrible odorous mess
The repulsive stench
Of roasting fleshSterile carnage, dried sanguined personae desecration
Scooping out the entrails, violent entrail emancipationThe taste of violent gorge hot on your breath
Digesting the succulent corpse in your succous death
