

Make It Precious

Make Me Famous

[Intro:]

OHH!!

Let me see, see your dreams

And just let me touch your heart again

On the street where my beliefs

Never caused you no pain[Verse 1:]

People hurt

They always leave in just a minute

For all those woken in my shirt

(YOU SHOULD ADMIT!) that I just did it

That I just did it[Chorus:]

Feels so hard to find the reason of love

Can't take any longer

You're so much stronger

Since I've been dreaming of a sign from above

Don't get any better

Nothing does matter

My eyes are open wide to see what's coming next

The trace I walk is so empty

I'll give my life to make you never forget

Who the hell you wanted to make me

I'm better than you could be[Verse 2:]

Always so sure

That you can climb the sky

Settle down your mind

And never ever die

Come and kiss me

Oh darling, make me believe

That I could ever give it back,

Just turn my back and leave[Breakdown:]

Never knew if my words

Would make sense again

When you extend your name

With titles and awards

If there is a time for words

To make sense again?

If there is a planet of hopes

Where you and me remain?You mesh my head

And that's the worst thing you could do

I never knew if my words would make sense again[Chorus:]

Feels so hard to find the reason of love

Can't take any longer

You're so much stronger

Since I've been dreaming of a sign from above

Don't get any better

Nothing does matter

My eyes are open wide to see what's coming next

The trace I walk is so empty

I'll give my life to make you never forget

Who the hell you wanted to make me

I'm better than you could be[Bridge:]

A tiny border between love and hate[Breakdown:]

Yeah babe, I was laughing

But now it's true

So make up your mind

And look for your heartbeat

I would connect my life

With every single partYeah babe, I was lying

But now it's true

So make up your mind

And look for your heartbeat

I would connect my life

With every single part[Outro:]

People hurt - they always leave in just a minute

For all those woken in my shirt - admit that I just did itPeople hurt - they always leave in just a minute

For all those woken in my shirt...Admit that I just did it bitch.OHH!
