Sunrise

Gordon Jensen

Song: Sunrise
From the 2006 Sharon Singers CD

Walking by faith 'neath the storm clouds of life;
Often my view has been hid from the light
But God's word has promised a brighter tomorrow,
And sunrise will find me with Jesus my Lord

Sunrise, sunrise will bring a much brighter tomorrow;
And sunrise will end the dark shadows of night;
Angels will sing to awaken the dawning-
Sunrise, sunrise will find me with Jesus my Lord

Sometimes my way gets so tired and so weary;
Often I find myself longing for home;
But a new day will dawn of this I am certain;
And sunrise will find me with Jesus my Lord.
