

Searchin' (feat. Kon Artis)

Eminem

Women Singing:

Ain't no one special, special like you

No one's special, special like you (3X)

I been searching, but you're the one I want in my life baby (4X) Verse 1: Eminem

I'm reminiscing on your tenderness and the snuggling and teasing

Missing what I remember, kissing and hugging and squeezing

Bugging and weezing, I'm having trouble when breathing

It's even tougher when sleeping

But there's a couple of reasons that I'm suffering and grieving

For loving and leaving, you're all I'm thinking of in the evening

You got my knees buckling and weakening

Thoughts of nothing but freaking that I'm struggling to keep in

And interrupt when I'm speaking

I got some game that I'm preparing to run

The way your lips sparkle and they glare in the sun

You got your hair in a bun, no matter what you're wearing you stun

Cause your comparing to none, I wanna share in the fun

I feel a passionate lust when I'm imagining just us alone at last with a touch

I see you grasping to trust, but my intentions are good

The seed is passing in dust

I'm not asking to rush and answer me immediately

I just wanna be there for you and you to be there for me

If you agree to repeat after me, I Love You (I love you baby)

Cause I just need you to see, how much I'm eager to be

Your man legally wed, your love's keeping me fed

This is easily said, so you can lead or be led

If you care to be down cause ain't nobody Like you no where to be found

CHORUS

Women Singing:

I been searching, but your the one I want in my life baby (4X) Verse 2: Denaun Porter

Baby it's all on you, it's you I call on boo

Let's set a day up so you can fall on through

We'll take a spin in a Lexus you can chill for dinner and breakfast

Long enough to see how this gentleman sex'es

We'll start it out with caviar, Don Parigne

And then when it's a fact we are warm, carry on

We'll take it slow, see nobody will hurry things

I got the herbs the Bacardi and Hurricane

If Daiquiris are in debate and not your thing that day
It's still all right cause I got Minute Maid and Tangeray
Your an incredible one that's rare, in bed with edible underwear
You look impeccable, nothing compares
I dream of freaking you, the women that will speak it too so
It seems that there is not an end to things that we can do so
Now we all set to play, only thing left to say is
When you step away, baby but don't forget the Neglicie

CHORUS

Women Singing:

I been searching, but your the one I want in my life baby (8X)
(fades) No one special, special like you (2X)
