You Have Been Loved

Sia

You shut me up, yeah and you filled my cup, oh
You sailed my boat, you were my very last hope
You took my very last hope away
Oh you, you will be loved by someone good
Yeah you, you will be loved by somebody good
You have been loved
You dropped the bomb and now you're gone
I held you dear, you swallowed my fears
And now I've drunk my last beer with you

Oh you, you have been loved by someone good
Yeah you, you will be loved
Oh will you ever know
That the bitterness and anger left me long ago?
Only sadness remains and it will pass, oh, oh, oh
Yeah you, you will be loved by somebody good
By somebody good
