Breathless

Scream Silence

i would you embrace
my dearest type
but i have to flee
save myself and hidegot lost in my minds what happens last time
but i can't breathe
without you -
my lifebut i can't breathe like an disliked child
don't want be
wounded deep inside
you in my arms
just once in a lifetime
i can't breathe without youyou could me embrace
my dearest type
but i treat you as you bereave my life
you could go away
to not waste your time
but i can't breathe
my life
