Firehouse

Kiss

She'll adore you and she'll floor you
With her wisdom and her vision
And you'll love it and think of it
'Til you lose all intuition, come on
She can move you and improve you
With her love and her devotion
And she'll thrill you and she'll chill you
But you're headed for commotion
And you'll need her so you'll feed her
With your endless dedication
And the quicker you get sicker
She'll remove your medication
Get the firehouse
'Cause she sets my soul afire
Get the firehouse
And the flames keep gettin' higher
She's like bad weather
But it seems so good
You'd never leave her
But you know you should
She's like bad weather
But it seems so good
You'd never leave her
But you know you should
Firehouse
'Cause she sets my soul afire
Get the firehouse, get the firehouse
Firehouse, alright
