

City of Tears

Johnny Preston

The streets are empty, the lights are dim.
I'm alone, you're with him.

My life is worthless without you dear.
That's why I live in the City of Tears.

There is no laughter, there is no love.
There are no stars up above.

Nothing but sorrow awaits me here.
I walk alone in the City of Tears.

I walk the streets in search of a love.
In search of a love that is lost.
Forever and ever I'll continue my search.
Whatever be the cost.

Will end this torment, troubles and strife.
I'll cast my heart on the waves of life.
Then all my heartaches will disappear.
I'll no longer live in the City of Tears.
