Stop the Violence

A Global Threat

(verse 1)
red light, blue light someone's gonna die tonight there is tension in the air, people dying everywhere suddenly you're surrounded by the ones thet you avoid look for help there's no one around,don't want to be destroyeddon't want to be destroyedviolent kids, death, rape now there is no escape society creates a trap and now there is no going back, roaming in groups in tens and twelves no ones thinking for themselves you cant ignore the violent state cant ignore the fucking hate(chorus) stop the violence stop the violence
stop the violence stop the violence stop the violence stop the violenceSOLO!(Verse 2) some say some day all this shit will go away do away with the police this world would live in harmony if you ask me thats fucking shit we'll always have to live with it but you cant give up all hope got find the courage just to cope(chorus)
