

Something Sweet

Madison Beer

[Madison]

See you looking at me
Feels like I'm in a dream
I don't wanna wake up
Think we're meant to be
My heart skipping a beat
Tonight just mystery
You know you're what I need
I know, I know, I gotta feel it out
Can't let go homeHey boy
Tell me what you're thinking
I can't wait until the weekend
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something sweet
Hey boy
Tell me what you're thinking
I can't wait until the weekend
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something sweetSay yeah
Say yeah
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something
Say yeah
Say yeah
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something sweetHeaven on earth with you
Take my breath away
No place I rather be
You're the only way
Got my heart on my sleeve
Come on take the lead
Show me the best things are free
I know, I know, I gotta feel it out
Can't let go homeHey boy
Tell me what you're thinking
I can't wait until the weekend
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something sweet
Hey boy

Tell me what you're thinking
I can't wait until the weekend
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something sweet Say yeah
Say yeah
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something
Say yeah
Say yeah
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something sweet I want love, be right
Where you are, because
I know we belong together
I want love, be right
I know we belong together Hey boy
I can't wait until the weekend
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something sweet
Hey boy
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something sweet Say yeah
Say yeah
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something
Say yeah
Say yeah
I know I know you know
It's gonna be something sweet
