Mary Jane

Danny Kirwan

Written by danny kirwan.You, you, you,
Doobie doobie
Doobie doobie
Doobie doobie doo
You, you, you,
Doobie doobie
Doobie doobie
Doobie doobie dooOh mary jane
Are you sleeping
Are you waiting for the sun
Oh mary jane
Your tears they fall
Like rain upon the sand
Let me take you by the handWe will go anywhere
As long as the world don't care about our love
We will go anywhere
As long as the world don't care about our loveOh come to me
And the brightness of the morning
Could be yours
Oh let us be
Together when as evening fades away
In to meet another dayWe will go anywhere
As long as the world don't care about our love
We will go anywhere
As long as the world don't care about our loveOh mary jane
Are you sleeping
Are you waiting for the sun
Oh mary jane
Your tears they fall
Like rain upon the sand
Let me take you by the handWe will go anywhere
As long as the world don't care about our love
We will go anywhere
As long as the world don't care about our love
