

A Question of Trust (Cyberpunk 1)

Mekong Delta

On the air
Words of wisdom spread across this land
And nod your head in faithful trust in me
So senseless - there's no doubt about it
So senseless - when you hear the latest news
So senseless - you'll accept my opinion
So senseless - as plain facts and truth
TV sets and the radio
We bring real life to your homes
This is the question of trust
Politicians
Talking 'bout affairs that don't concern you
Just close your eyes and drift away
So senseless - identical faces
So senseless - the same stupid talk
So senseless - let's fight for entertainment
So senseless - then have a drink at the bar
Switch on the TV
And you will find life's som much brighter with us
This is the question of trust
Come home from work
Feeling weary and out
We kill your boredom and thoughts
This is the question of trust
Pay some more bucks
For a fifty-inch screen
Our second hand world will seem real
This is a question of trust
