So Long

Constantine Maroulis

Baby, oh baby, you really done it this time
It may be crazy, oh crazy, but you made up my mind
Lord, Im sick of crying
Oh, Im shivering from the cold, its so hard letting you goBut Im tired of dealing with a heartache
Ive had enough of living life this way
Damn, it could have been better
Me and you should have been foreverAnd I know Im better being on my own
Here I go, Im walking out that door
I admit that Im so scared, baby, but I dont care
Lonely only stays lonely for so long, so long, for so longMaybe, oh maybe, baby, maybe Im making a big mistake
Oh honey lately, oh lately Ive been overexposed
I got highs, I got lows, I got love, I got hateOh, theres something you oughta know
You took my heart, but Im keeping my soul
Woah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahIm tired of dealing with a heartache
Ive had enough of living life this way
Damn, it could have been better
Me and you should have been foreverAnd I know Im better being on my own
Here I go, Im walking out that door, yeah
I admit that Im so scared, baby, but I dont care
Lonely only stays lonely for so longI said, Im tired of dealing with a heartache
Ive had enough of living life this way
Damn, it could have been better
Me and you should have been foreverAnd I know Ill be better on my own
Here I go, Im walking out that door, yeah
Well, I admit that Im so scared, baby, but I dont care
Lonely only stays lonely for so long
