Indian Summer

ChloÃ© Caroline

I see them watching you; I can't blame them, I feel it too
the whole world stops when you walk in the room Pretty eyes and a perfect smile drive any woman wild it would break their hearts if they knew the truth.

All these girls coming up to you, watch them all trying to make their move
I donâ€™t mind 'cuz they don't have a clue
'Cuz it feels like an Indian Summer with the windows down and a song on the radio
It feels like a natural high, gives me butterflies when I fall into your eyes
No one, nobody, nowhere, mmmm, will ever be better than me and you understand no one's gonna love you like I can('t) explain this thing we share.

It's like we're walking on air, and we're each other's missing puzzle piece
Don't matter what they say or do, I know they can't get to you
'cuz I'm the one who's got just what you need.

All these girls coming up to you, watch them all trying to make their move
I don't mind 'cuz they donâ€™t have a clue
'Cuz it feels like an Indian Summer with the windows down and a song on the radio
It feels like a natural high gives me butterflies when I fall into your eyes
No one, nobody, nowhere, mmmm, will ever be better than me
and you understand no one's gonna love you like I can.

No one's gonna kiss you how I kiss you,
All ya' gotta do is be yourself, you're all I want, there's no one else.

It feels like an Indian Summer with the windows down and a song on the radio
It feels like a natural high give me butterflies when I fall into your eyes
No one, nobody, nowhere, mmmm, will ever be better than me
and you understand no one's gonna love you like I can.

No one can love you like I canâ€¦ like I can
