Heaven Tonight

Lea Salonga

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Must we wait for tomorrow
There's a chance we may find it today
Lonely hearts know the answer
If you just let me show you the way
I'll lead you to a paradise, ohPassion hides in the shadows
Let emotion take over your soul
Lose yourself in a moment
You know our love is a river that flows
All the way to paradise, ohHeaven tonight will be waiting for you
In this heart burning bright
There's a promise forever to
Heaven tonight is just a kiss away
How long must I wait for you?Come to me in the darkness
Let me hear every beat of your heart
Whisper words in the silence
And say together we're here with the stars
In a never ending love, ohHeaven tonight will be waiting for you
In this heart burning bright
There's a promise forever to
Heaven tonight is just a kiss away
How long must I wait for you?And when I close my eyes I see us together
Make this dream of mine come true
'Cause if you ever need someone
Don't worry now, heaven is waiting for youHeaven tonight will be waiting for you
In this heart burning bright
There's a promise forever to
Heaven tonight is just a kiss away
How long must I wait forHeaven tonight will be waiting for you
In this heart burning bright
There's a promise forever to
Heaven tonight is just a kiss away
How long must I wait forHeaven tonight will be waiting for you

In this heart burning bright
There's a promise forever to
Heaven tonight is just a kiss away
How long must I wait for you?
