Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

He's my boy
He told your ass not once but twice
You should've took his advice and left the man alone
You still drive by here every night
'Cause you're not wrapped too tight
When he left, your mind explode
You had your chance
And you lost a good man
I know it's sad
Thinking about what you had
If you were smart
Keep that ass off my car
Next time see me
I won't be your lady, no, no
Don't mess with my man
Don't mess with my boy
Don't mess with my man
(Keep your hands off my man)
(Keep your hands) Don't mess with my man
Don't mess with my boy
Keep your hands off my man
(He's my boy)
Keep your hands off my man
Keep, keep your hands off my man
You bitched at him all night, all day
And constantly complained
Till you drove the man away
Always saying something
Said he wasn't good for nothing
Tell me why the hell you stalking?
You're dismissed now get to walking
You had your chance
And you lost a good man
I know it's sad
Thinking about what you had
If you were smart
Keep that ass off my car
Next time see me
I won't be your lady, no, no
Don't mess with my man
