Back Among the Living

Lorrie Morgan

Well it finally quit raining,
It's been one Hell of a storm.
I don't know what I'm feelin',
But I'm not feelin numb anymore.
After you left me,
I laid down my Heart and I died (inside),
But in the middle of Dying,
I found the Strength to survive.[Chorus]
Now I'm Back among the Living,
Finally out of the dark.
I've got hope and it's beginning,
To heal all the hurt in my heart.
I've got a long way to go,
And I still don't know if or when,
I'll love again.
I still need to mend,
But I'm back among the living again.
You're out of my life,
But still in my heart and my mind.
There's only so much I can change,
In so little time.
I might even love you as much,
As I loved you before (I'm not sure)
But I'm living for me now,
Not dying for you anymore.
Repeat Chorus
I've got a long way to go,
And I still don't know if or when,
I'll love again.
I still need to mend,
But I'm back among the living again.
