Halfway Decent

Audio Karate

this one dimension of myself has hurt the ones I love and I have come to shut you out and the god I fear above and I will make my way through the lines drawn on the floor it goes away so quickly now but I've been gone before and everything I do and everything I say they come in conflict even as I sing this song today and I know I've let you down please know it's not your fault because knowing you has made me halfway decent by defaultso let me go and fall asleep when I wake up it won't be me so let me go and fall asleep when I wake up it won't beno it won't be meand everything I do and everything I say
and I know I've let you down
please know its not your fault because loving me has made me halfway decent by defaultso let me go and fall asleep
when I wake up it won't be me
so let me go and fall asleep when I wake up it won't beso let me go and fall asleep when I wake up it won't be me
so let me go and fall asleep when I wake up it won't be
