Day One

Polly Paulusma

Days turn to night
It reveals itself true light
Back at home, out of wrong
Where it feels right
Days turn to night
It reveals itself true light
Back at home, out of wrong
Where it feels right
(Hey)
Stay away from monetary
Gain temptation
Feel your inner souls vibration
We are channels for a place from
Deep within where we all came from
Relaxation meditation
Connected to all creation
Infinite but all the same one
(Hey)
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
Days turn to night
It reveals itself true light
Back at home, out of wrong
Where it feels right
Days turn to night
It reveals itself true light
Back at home, out of wrong
Where it feels right
(Okay)
Drive on my course I drift afloat
Plus the times life is inner mystical
Seein' signs, see it's planted in the road
More I know more I don't pretend to know

Just a piece and a fragment in the hole
Just a servant not labeled friend or foe
Begin again good or bad is just
A moment in eternity

A fight to get your soul, back
Get your soul back
(Get your soul back)
Get your soul back
Get your soul back
(Get your soul back)
Get your soul back
(Get your soul back)
Get your soul back
Get your soul back
(Get your soul, get your soul)
Days turn to night
It reveals itself true light
Back at home, out of wrong
Where it feels right
(Hey)
Days turn to night
It reveals itself true light
Back at home, out of wrong
Where it feels right
(Hey)
Days turn to night
It reveals itself true light
Back at home, out of wrong
Where it feels right
(Hey)
Days turn to night
It reveals itself true light
Back at home, out of wrong
Where it feels right
(Hey)
