

Enlightened By The Cold

Shadows Fall

When you never know
Is when it's always there
It seemed so clearThe slightest touch
To catch the breath
It turns it all aroundSingle path that I can see
Emptiness devours meEnlightened by the cold
It overcomes the torment
(What if I could bring you back?)
Enlightened by the coldEnough to burn through walls
Built on anguish
Can I be revived?Let it hit with force
Strong enough to blind
The numbness healsSingle path that I can see
Emptiness devours meEnlightened by the cold
It overcomes the torment
(What if I could bring you back?)
Enlightened by the coldMy worth is only defined
By the nest disasterWhen you never know
Is when it's always there
It seemed so clearThe slightest touch
To catch the breath
It turns it all aroundSingle path that I can see
Emptiness devours meEnlightened by the cold
It overcomes the torment
(What if I could bring you back?)
Enlightened by the coldMy worth is only defined
By the nest disaster
By the nest disaster
