

Karla the Strange

Maddy Ellwanger

K was for Karla who liked to play dead oh she'd twist up your words and she'd mess with your head she didn't even cringe, she just watched as you bled and she turned your veins from blue to red

Psychopathic ways,
and idiotic games
a schizophrenic maze,
of lies to numb the pain

K was for Karla who loved the sight of any little thing that could cause you fright it's "Karla The Strange" you better get it right or she might eat your brains in the middle of the night

Psychopathic ways
and idiotic games
a schizophrenic maze,

Addiction Addiction, Death and affliction A walking contradiction living life in fiction, Perfection Perfection, everyone's deception find your new obsession to feed your aggression

K was for Karla who liked to play dead
and she'd mess with your head she didn't even cringe she just watched as you bled
and she turned your veins from blue to red
