Driving Blind

Jack Novak, Bright Lights

You held me up when I was down
Said everything without a sound
Yeah, you're beautiful
Now you fill me up like a ghost
When you're far away, you're always close
Our chain is unbreakable
Whatever happens, wherever I go
I want you to know
That I'm driving blind
And I'm half-alive, spinning around
When you're not here
My feet don't touch the ground
Day and night
Losing you is turning me inside
Turning me inside out
And all the words I might have said
Got twisted up instead and I
I wish you were here tonight
It feels so cold inside this pace
So alone, surrounded by your space
I'm empty now
Whatever happens, wherever I go
I want you to know

That I'm driving blind
And I'm half-alive, spinning around
When you're not here
My feet don't touch the ground
Day and night
Losing you is turning me inside
Turning me inside out
If you could see me now
Would you save me
But I crash to the ground
Can you hear me?
That I'm driving blind
And I'm half-alive, spinning around

When you're not here
My feet don't touch the ground
Day and night
Losing you is turning me inside
Turning me inside out
Turning me inside
Turning me inside out
