Thoughts In Reverse

Destroy the Runner

I feel it taking over everything inside of me
And I'm losing control
Weakness in my chest, my heart stops beating
Flat lined and I'm in betweenThis is my struggle, this is emptiness
Closer and closer again, I feel it happening
Holding fast to the hands of grace
I know you're stronger inside, stronger than meHope walks backwards, my thoughts in reverse
Scream for me, I'll hear your voice, my heart knows no other
