

Where Are You

Fletch Towell Band

Where are you my only son,
far away in a war not won.

Tell my girl, don't you cry, life goes on, its alright

Where are you my little girl.
I'm lost in city, without a world.

Tell my mom, don't you cry, life goes on, and it's alright.

We laugh and the days fly by,
wait to find the light

Then one day we look back and you find it always was right.

Had you known what you knew, wouldn't have wasted you time.

Then again, once explained, was the same, since beginning of time Holding the line,
confirm and deny, the lord divine

A sign

Where are you my only son?

I'm far away in a war not won.

Tell my girl, don't you cry, life goes on, and it's alright

Tell my girl, don't you cry, life goes on, and it's alright.
