

By the River

Bleeding Hearts Syndicate

My inner-self and me by the river
Are killing time again
Just wondering how to heal the both of us
And everyone I see is just a mirror,
Got his personal evil twin deep down
My inner-self left me by the river
Im making sense of every little thing
That never meets the eye
And every sound I hear soon surrenders,
Silence leads to a secret place inside
So Ill be waiting here
Until you come my way,
Ill be sitting here
Just like yesterday,
And maybe tomorrow
Maybe here? Ill be waiting here
Until you come my way,
Ill be sitting here
Just like yesterday,
And Ill probably miss you
Til I start to learn
Theres no tomorrow,
Nobody here,
Just a river
