

Never Did No Wanderin'

The Folksmen

Wanderin

Never did no wanderin My mother was the cold North wind,
My daddy was the son, of a railroad man from west of hell,
Where the trains dont even run Never heard the whistle of a lonesome freight,
Or the singing of its driving wheel,
No I, never did not wanderin
Never did no wanderin
Never did no wanderin after all They say they highways just one big road,
And it goes from here to there,
And they say you carry a heavy load,
When youre rolling down the line somewhere Never seen the dance of the telephone poles,
As they go whizzin by,
Never did no wanderin
Never did no wanderin
Never did no wanderin after all Never did no wanderin..high!
Never did no wanderin..low! Now a sailors life is a life for him,
But it never was for me,
And I never soared where the hawk may soar,
Or see what the hawk might see, Never hiked to heaven on a mountain trail,
Never rode on a rivers rage
Never did no wanderin
Never did no wanderin
Never did no wanderin after all Easy now!
Never did no wanderin
Never did no wanderin
Never did no wanderin after all No I never did no wanderin after all
