

Dare Me

Soror Dolorosa

Dear soul,
Dare me to introduce myself, in those pages I'd like to see you fill,
at the same that you emptied my life, and my soul. Fill all my spirit.
I do not want to be prolix and I fear, with no doubt, and dirtying your future feelings, I do not want to be sure of me,
with no hours,
enclosing to your future feelings.
Nevertheless, take this skin as a mark, a gage of;
as a mark of you in me,
this mark of you in me, as the witness crys this feeling's reading inside of
Of me,
the cadaver can be exquisite.
- AgatheIt stands still on the hours and decades
A gateThe pure aspect of your intimate, tonight
So dare me, to introduce myself Without any word and anything Within anything that can kiss my lips Crushes on your skin forever Crushes on my skin, foreverWith nothing left but a lace
With nothing left but the trace With nothing left on my skin and disgrace!
My skin and disgrace
All lovers
You and I
