With All My Soul

Jaci Velasquez

Beneath bright stars
Where children seek in a world gone crazy
Reveal your scars
My flesh is weak and my mind is hazyThe breath I breathe
Is mine to hold only for a moment
I need to believe
In divine control, eternal flowingI'm lifting up my hands
I'm opening my heart
I'm trusting You with all my soulI'm giving up, I'm letting go
'Cause I need You to take control
I'm giving up, I'm letting go
I'm trusting You with all my soul, with all my soulFrom dusk to dawn
The sun still shines on devout pretenders
That girl is gone, yeah
Lord, touch my eyes, I will surrenderWhen skies are dark
My spirit cries for Your love only
Reveal Your heart
Please show me the light dear God, most holyI'm reaching for the truth
I'm opening up my eyes
I'm trusting You with all my soulI'm giving up, I'm letting go
'Cause I need You to take control
I'm giving up, I'm letting go
I'm trusting You with all my soulI'm giving up, I'm letting go
'Cause I need You to take control
I'm giving up, I'm letting go
I'm trusting You with all my soul, with all my soulIf I let go of it all
I need You to break my fall
Like a faithful child
I'm calling out to You
I'm reaching out for YouI'm giving up, I'm letting go
'Cause I need You to take control
I'm giving up, I'm letting go
I'm trusting You with all my soulI'm giving up, I'm letting go
'Cause I need You to take control
I'm giving up, yeah I'm letting go
I need You, I need You
I'm letting go, I'm letting go
