Five

Twiddle

The number five's the one for me
When learning's young and feeling's free
The world so new, your body needsYou see the one, she melts the sun
Just shut your eyes imaginingA quick hello
She seems to know the way your body chose to glowWhen the lights turn on, and the clouds have parted
It seems my world is so excited
So let the light pour in, feel your body sign
One great moment, two lives collide
Just to feel the joy, the pain, the love, the strain
Deceit and truth, untied, undue
She made me feel right, not lost in the night
An angel by sight, my sweet number 5
To walk or run, hop or jump
It seems it's all the same in five
Sing or scream, hug or fight
She smiles the room is filled with pride
A tickled tongue, a laughing from
With kicks and bites our bodies one
A little kiss, a virgin cheek
A rush of joy consuming meWhen the lights turn on, and the clouds have parted
It seems my world is so excited
So let the light pour in, feel your body sign
One great moment, two lives collide
Just to feel the joy, the pain, the love, the strain
The seat and true, untied, undue
A smile, a frown, your world flipped round
It's then it's now, it's pure and found
She made me feel right, not lost in the night
An angel by sight, my sweet number 5
I'm losing time
Rewind your mind, replay the truth
A glass of wine, the movie's fine
The will to change your daily dues
Losing time, spinning high
The loss of breath burnt out the fuse
A brightened day, the best mistake
One perfect soul split into twoWhen the lights turn on, and the clouds have parted
It seems my world is so excited
So let the light pour in, feel your body sign

One great moment, two lives collide
Just to feel the joy, the pain, the love, the strain
The seat and true, untied, undue
A smile, a frown, your world flipped round
It's then, it's now, it's pure and found
Too high or too low, too fast or too slow
It's here and there, it's when and where
We are blind when we see, we're trapped when we're free
We are lost when were found, facing up looking down
She made me feel right, not lost in the night
An angel by sight, my sweet number 5
